Western Gate supports initiative by Stock Spirits to produce hand sanitiser in Pilsen Facility

Western Gate Private Investments Limited (“Western Gate”) a 10% long term shareholder in Stock Spirits, wishes to express its full support and congratulations to The Company for their initiative in producing hand sanitiser at its production facility in the Czech Republic, in order to lend its help to mitigating the spread of the ongoing COVID-19 outbreak.

The hand sanitiser is to be donated to the Czech government who will distribute it to medical personnel and emergency services, as well as staff in the retail sector. Stock Spirits is also in talks with the Polish authorities and look to do the same in their production facility in Lublin, Poland.

Francisco Santos, Director, Western Gate said:

“We are pleased to hear about this initiative by Stock Spirits and fully support it.”

“It is our view that everyone must do what they can to help stop the spread of COVID-19 and we hope that Stock Spirits is able to do what it can in all its core markets”
